The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the closest prior art reference of record is the patent to Proteat; however, the reference does not teach or suggest the features of claim 1 of utilizing a data unit on the target processor to transfer data from the target processor to an emulator and device driver on the host to enable dynamic linking and loading of software to support a new target processor; the features of claim 2 of determining if there is support for a specific kind of processor in the emulator by the target interface communicating with a dynamic loader on the host computer and if not loading a target interface to enable support; the features of claim 5 at the time of use linking and loading of emulation software for one or more debuggers on a host to communicate with a mix of target processors via a JTAG debug link and emulator by enabling support if it is not already provided; or the features of claim 7 of reading a system description file to determine which kind of target interfaces are required for operation and then communicating with each required target interface to establish connection to the target system to enable support for a single debugger.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
